26	DETENTION ORDER - 1 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) Defendant is serving a state court sentence in Hawaii. His presence here was secured by issuance of a writ.
- (2) It appears that he will remain in Hawaii's custody for a further period long enough to allow completion of this case. If so, this court's determination as to detention or release would be moot.
- (3) Because there is a possibility, however, that he could complete his state sentence while this case is still pending, this court should make a determination as to detention or release.
- (4) Defendant and his counsel indicated they did not contest the entry of an order of detention.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney

 General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
